

Privacy Notice for Governors/Trustees and Volunteers

In the development of this notice consideration has been given to Equality and Diversity and Data Protection.

Equality and Diversity

The Diocese of Ely Multi-Academy Trust (DEMAT) is committed to promoting equality of opportunity for all staff and job applicants. The Trust aims to create a supportive and inclusive working environment in which all individuals are able to make best use of their skills, free from discrimination or harassment, and in which all decisions are based on merit. We do not discriminate against staff on the basis of age; race; sex; disability; sexual orientation; gender reassignment; marriage and civil partnership; pregnancy and maternity; religion, faith or belief (Equality Act 2010 protected characteristics). The principles of non-discrimination and equality of opportunity also apply to the way in which staff and Governors treat visitors, volunteers, contractors and former staff members.

Data Protection

DEMAT will process personal data of staff (which may be held on paper, electronically, or otherwise). DEMAT recognises the need to treat this data in an appropriate and lawful manner, in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA).

Application of the Notice

This notice is to be used by all Governors/Trustees of, and Volunteers at, The Diocese of Ely Multi-Academy Trust (DEMAT).

Privacy Notice for Governors/Trustees and Volunteers

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the Trust uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals working with the Trust and its schools in a voluntary capacity, including Governors/Trustees.

We, Diocese of Ely Multi Academy Trust, Grace Building, 8 High Street, Ely, CB7 4JU, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our Data Protection Officer is Joanne Patterson (see 'Contact us' below).

The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those volunteering at the Trust or its schools. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details
- References
- Date of birth, marital status and gender
- Next of kin and emergency contact numbers
- Bank account details, payroll records, National Insurance number and tax status information
- Evidence of qualifications
- Copy of driving licence
- Photographs
- CCTV footage (where installed across the Trust sites)
- Data about your use of the Trust's information and communications system
- Information about business and pecuniary interests
- Results of DBS and Section 128s (when applicable)

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This includes information about (where applicable):

- Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions
- Disability and access requirements

Why we use this data

The purpose of processing this data is to support the Trust and its schools, to:

- Establish and maintain effective governance
- Meet statutory obligations for publishing and sharing Governors'/Trustees' details
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- Undertake equalities monitoring
- Ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for volunteers who require them

Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you where the law allows. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Comply with a legal obligation
- Carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent and explain how to withdraw consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

Personal data is stored in accordance with our Retention Guidance/Records Management Policy which you can access via our website: <https://demat.org.uk/gdpr/>.

We maintain a file to store personal information about all volunteers. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your work with the Trust and its schools.

When your relationship with the Trust has ended, we will retain and dispose of your personal information in accordance with our Retention Guidance/Records Management Policy which you can access via our website: <https://demat.org.uk/gdpr/>.

Data sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

- Government departments or agencies – to meet our legal obligations to share information about Governors/Trustees
- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as details of Governors

- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service for which we have contracted them, such as Governor/Trustee support
- Professional advisers and consultants
- Employment and recruitment agencies
- Police forces, courts

Your rights

How to access personal information we hold about you

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the Trust or schools holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please complete the form that can be found on our website via: <https://demat.org.uk/gdpr/> under Subject Access Request Information and return to: dpo@demat.org.uk.

Your other rights regarding your data

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

- Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
- Object to the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Contact us

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

To make a complaint, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:
